

Lake Metonga Association

Biology Lake Studies on Metonga

About fifty biology and ecology students from Crandon, Laona, and Wabeno high schools participated in a lake ecology field studies program on Lake Metonga this September. The students learned about plant, animal and fish, as well as soil and water quality issues in the lake habitat ecosystem.

Special thanks to Les Schramm and Harry Resch from the Lake Metonga Association for their assistance with the program.

